Naxal violence

958. SHRIAMAR SINGH:
SHRI ABU ASIM AZMI:

Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that the recent Republic Day function was marred by organized Naxalite Violence that hit Bihar and Jharkhand with some severity and remained limited to light attacks in Maharashtra and Orissa.

(b) if so, the details thereof including the loss of lives and property as a result of their attacks; and

(c) whether Government have not able to chalk out any concrete plan to tackle the Naxal problem which has resulted in the killing of several hundred people and if so, the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI SHRIPRAKASH JAISWAL): (a) and (b) Naxalites resorted to blasting of railway tracks/attacking railway stations, police establishments, disrupting road traffic, postering, pamphleteering and organizing processions in their strongholds of Bihar, Jharkhand, Chhattisgarh, Orissa, Maharashtra, Madhya Pradesh and West Bengal on the occasion of the Republic Day this year. As per available reports, the details of loss of lives and property etc. during such attacks are as per statement enclosed (See Below).

(c) The Government has a clearly defined policy to combat the challenge posed by the naxalite menace. The Govt, has adopted a multipronged strategy to address the naxal problem on political, security and development fronts. While effective and sustained police action is to be pursued individually and jointly by the affected States to counter naxal violence, urgent steps are required to be taken to accelerate development in the naxal affected areas. There will be no dialogue with the naxal outfits by the affected States unless the latter agree to shun violence. The Central Government will continue to coordinate and supplement the efforts and resources of the State Governments on both security and development fronts to meet the challenge posed by the naxal problem.

Naxal attacks on the eve of Republic Day

†959. SHRI MOTILAL VORA: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that rail traffic was disrupted as a result of bomb explosions on tracks and bridge by Naxalites just before the Republic Day in Bihar and Jharkhand after kidnapping some of the railway employees;

(b) if so, the details thereof;

(c) whether it is also a fact that in the recent past Naxalites had been threatening to carry out attacks just before Republic Day; and

(d) if so, the steps Government and concerned State Government have taken to check the same?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI SHRIPRAKASH JAISWAL): (a) to (c) Naxalites resorted to blasting of railway tracks/attacking railways stations, police establishments, disrupting road traffic, and organizing processions in their strongholds of Bihar, Jharkhand, Chhattisgarh, Orissa, Maharashtra, Madhya Pradesh and West Bengal on the occasion of the Republic Day this Year. Generally, the naxalites give a Bandh Call on such occasions.
